DOCTORS MISTAKES

Are said often to be buried six feet under ground. But many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they present alike to themselves and their easy-going or over-busy doctor, separate diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, keeps up his treatment until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better in reason of the wrong treatment, but probably worse. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the female system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

NO INVITATION.

It is significant of the session of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans o Virginia which closed at Norfolk last week that for the first time in the twenty years' history of that body there was before it no invitation in regard to the next place of meeting. When in the order of business the grand commander announced that the time had come for fixing the next place of meeting there was a significant silence. Some one saved an awkward situation by moving that this be referred to the commander and quartermaster to make arrangements for a meeting place and issue a general order.

Inquiry from representative men from different parts of the State developed the fact that under present conditions there are very few camps in the State financially able to undertake so complicated a matter as the entertainment of the Grand Camp.

Not only must the camp and neighborhood undertake to look out for the comfort and entertainment of delegates and visiting veterans, a labor of love in most communities, but under the present system a vast army of bangers-on and camp followers have also to be provided for.

The Sons of Veterans have to have their convention, diverting that much of the support and attention from the main camp.

Sponsors and maids of honor must be provided for, chaperoned, entertained and given every attention. And now comes this new organization of Confederate Choirs, with their female lieutenant-generals and their military coats, also demanding attentions during the session of the grand camp. It is the proverbial last straw, and some camps which have repeatedly invited the Grand Camp to hold its annual session with them have hesitated in renewing the invitation.

Grand Commander Munford has not taken any steps as yet looking to the selection of the next meeting place.

PROHIBITIONISTS VICTORIOUS.

Jefferson county, Ala., in which the city of Birmingham is situated, voted out whisky by a majority approximating 2,000, after a highly exciting campaign. The city of Birmingham gave a majority of 302 against prohibition, but the rest of the county went heavily for it.

A curious feature is that places like Ensley and Bessemer, where large iron works are located, and where hundreds of iron workers, supposed to be against prohibition, are employed, went strongly against liquor.

Nearly twelve thousand votes were cast, and the day was marked by spectacular features. Thousands of women and children surged the streets throughout the day carrying aloft placards, shouting their desire for prohibition, singing hymns, and praying. "Jefferson Going Dry," to the tune of "Bringing in the Sheaves," was sung throughout the day. "Bread or Booze?" was the placarded query, and "Home or Hell?" "Wife or Whisky?" were the warnings from the white ribboners.

As early as 8:30 o'clock, 5,000 women and children gathered at Capitol Park, paraded the streets, and visited polling places. Every parader wore a white ribbon, and many carried prohibition banners.

The paraders yelled and sang as they marched. Many ministers and business men accompanied them. Later the women gathered at the polling places and served luncheon and coffee as the men voted.

Similar demonstrations on a smaller scale were made at many suburban towns. The weather was ideal. A heavy vote was polled.

The schools were closed, so great was the interest of children in it. Birmingham and Jefferson county are the largest city and county in Alabama, Birmingham having nearly 50,000 population.

The prohibitionists will make their next move against liquor in Montgomery.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 29, 1907.

D. F. BAILEY, of Bristol, spoke at Abingdon yesterday to a large crowd at the county courthouse. In his speech he declared himself an independent republican candidate for Congress, and bitterly denounced the republican machine of the Ninth District, as dominated by the Slemps-Summerses and the federal officeholders. He declared himself as unalterably opposed to the political trust existing in his district with the internal revenue officers and postmasters as stockholders, and appealed to the rank and file of the republican party to aid him in breaking up the combination that was running this organization for the furtherance of personal ambitions. The political firm of Slemp, Summers & Co., has not proven as beneficial to the republican party in Virginia as was anticipated by their friends when Mr. Park Agnew, chairman of the State republican committee, was side-tracked for what was called the "new and progressive blood." Mr. Summers was made collector of internal revenue for this district in place of Mr. Agnew, and much was expected of him and his coadjutors. They have not only failed to increase the republican vote, but, according to the above, have succeeded in splitting the party.

IN THE ceremonies attending "Free School Day" at the Jamestown Exposition, Senator-elect Williams, of Mississippi, one of the orators of the occasion, declared in his address that if war resulted from the determination of California to exclude Japanese from the public schools, it would be a righteous war. Among the other things he said:

It is the race which counts, not the land. The white race, where it keeps itself white, is great and has enjoyed primacy, whether in Europe, America, South Africa, or New Zealand. A hybrid race is great in no land, on no soil, and under no sun. If we are to retain as people the "heir of all ages in the foremost files of time" we are to keep this a white man's country, doing justice where our laxity—amounting to a crime—has already confronted us with race problems, but anticipating other race problems by preventing by law, and by force if needful, the further invasion of other than white races and the further infusion of other than white blood, whether it be Chinese, Japanese, Hindoo, or negro. If the determination of Californians to exclude Japanese shall result in war, it will be the holiest war ever waged by us.

A DISPATCH from Greensboro, N. C., says that the investigation by a coroner's jury yesterday of the wreck at Rudd, October 17th, whereby five passengers were killed and twenty injured, resulted in a verdict that Brakeman H. C. Leonard, of the freight crew, was guilty of negligence and responsible for the wreck. He was accordingly taken in custody. The jury further found that the entire freight crew, of which Leonard was one, had been on continuous duty for twenty-three hours, and recommended that the State Solicitor investigate as to whether the Southern Railway was criminally responsible or not. Attention was called in the Gazette to the evidence given by Leonard after the accident. He acknowledged he was asleep and said in exenuation that he had been on continuous duty for 23 hours. The recommendations of the jury are opportune, and all railroad companies which it is alleged work men 23 out of 24 hours should have such procedures investigated.

THE GENERAL ELECTION takes place in this State one week from today. Attention has previously been called to the likelihood of apathy on the part of some democrats from the fact that most of the candidates of the party have no serious opposition. While this may be the case, it is nevertheless incumbent upon all members of the party to cast their ballots and thus swell the vote and unanimously confirm the nominations of the primary elections. It was said that in the presidential election of 1872, when Virginia cast her vote for Grant, the result was due to "General Apathy." While no such danger confronts the party at present, each democrat should take pride in voting, and endeavor to make the tidal wave as large as possible.

THAT A new party will grow out of the present local option campaign in Delaware in the event of the anti-license forces winning the fight is believed to be a fact. Women will take an active part on election day next Tuesday week and the "wets" are more afraid of them than they are of some of the big politicians who have affiliated themselves with the "drys." Men are being buttonholed by their feminine acquaintances and made to promise to vote the "anti-saloon" ticket. Women workers will be placed at each of the 89 voting places in Wilmington. The success of the prohibition party in Alabama will, it is thought, result in women taking a more active part in elections throughout the country.

THE FINANCIAL excitement of the past week has proved beneficial to a large class, although it has caused shrinkage in certain stocks and brought disaster to many who follow speculation. Omaha packing houses have reduced the prices of all kinds of meat 10 per cent, and expect a still further reduction. The belief is expressed that the prices of all commodities will be materially reduced, and that the present financial flurry would result in a general reduction in values. Liquidation precipitated a slump in grain prices on the Chicago Board of Trade yesterday. Wheat declined 3½ to 4 cents within a few minutes, and corn showed a loss of over 1 cent as compared with closing quotations Saturday.

BECAUSE of a collection of broken noses, broken legs, broken fingers and dislocated bones, declared to be unequaled by any other football team in the country, the Lima, Ohio, college eleven has cancelled all its scheduled games and has disbanded for the season. An inventory of the players revealed six broken noses, four broken legs, eight dislocated bones and a dozen broken fingers. Is Lima College satisfied with such a record?

THE senior class of the University of North Carolina has adopted a resolution commending the sophomore class for the manner in which the latter body has turned its face resolutely against the tradition of hazing. Since the students of this institution have taken the matter in hand hazing has become a thing of the past. The course of the North Carolina seniors should be followed by the students in all the colleges in the country.

Another southern belle has demonstrated that to be known is to be loved, and another northerner has proved that papa's and mamma's consent isn't necessary so long as the girl is willing. Miss Miller, daughter of Lieut. Col. W. B. Miller, of Alabama, chief quartermaster of the Philippine Division, is now the wife of Julian Humphrey, lieutenant of Philippine scouts, and son of Major General Charles F. Humphrey, U. S. A., retired. She took her new name recently at "The Little Church Around the Corner," in Manila, after a vain attempt on the part of her parents to separate her from her lover by taking her to the Philippines from Washington. Lieut. Humphrey and Miss Miller had known each other for years. They finally became so devoted that Lieut. Col. and Mrs. Miller became alarmed, believing that both were too young to marry. That simply convinced the lovers that they must marry. Late in the summer, Lieut. Col. Miller was ordered to the Philippines. Mrs. Miller dosen't care much for Manila, but this time she was anxious to go for it meant that she could thus take her daughter away from Young Humphrey. How she felt when the first person she met on the transport sailing from San Francisco was Julian Humphrey in the uniform of a lieutenant of Scotts, she has not written to any one in the United States. Humphrey had learned of his sweetheart's intended voyage, and had laid his own plans accordingly. It was a delightful voyage, those moonlight nights—for Miss Miller and Mr. Humphrey. The ban was placed on Lieut. Humphrey when the party reached Manila. But a post-office box, which he rented and to which Miss Miller was given a key proved a assistance to Cupid. Then for some unknown reason and through some unrevealed influence, Lieut. Humphrey was ordered from Manila to Mindanao, a province far to the South. Did he go alone? Half a dozen persons who gathered in the Methodist Church to hear Rev. Isaac R. Harper pronounce the wedding ceremony a few hours later can answer that question—also the Postmaster at Manila, for Post Office Box 98 is not in use these days.

It cost eight million dollars to appease the hunger of the United States army in the last fiscal year, according to the annual report of Brig. Gen. Henry G. Sharpe, commissary general, made public today. He states that the subsistence department during the year experimented with numerous devices designed for fireless cooking, and while a number were found satisfactory in a small way, none was adaptable for use on a large scale. During the year 53 bakers and 115 cooks were graduated from the army training schools at Fort Riley, Kas., Washington, D. C., Barracks, and the Presidio, San Francisco. General Sharpe this year renews his recommendations that officer and civilian employees in the field be allowed one ration each per day. At present only enlisted men are supplied.

THE PRESBYTERIANS.

Polygamy, with the promise of a controversy between China and the United States, bids fair to be the predominating scheme before the Virginia Presbyterian Synod at Charleston, W. Va., and it is not likely that it will be possible for the meeting to adjourn as per schedule.

Dr. S. S. Laws, formerly of Westminster, has introduced the subject, notwithstanding the opposition of the majority of the delegates.

Yesterday Dr. C. W. Maxwell, superintendent of the Synodical Presbyterian Orphans' Asylum, at Lynchburg, gave rise to the most interesting development of the meeting, alleging that there are such differences between him and the board of directors that the situation should have the attention of the synod. A committee was appointed to investigate the subjects in difference, and, if possible, decide the questions at a meeting in Lynchburg by the first of the coming year.

The Presbyterian Synod is to meet next October at Roanoke.

In Search of Daughter.

London, Oct. 29.—Former Director Alexander Lapukine of the St. Petersburg police department will arrive in London tomorrow to aid in the search for his daughter, Barbara, for whom Scotland Yard has been hunting vainly since her abduction Thursday. The police agree with Miss Russell that the case is one of kidnapping and not elopement. They say the alarm was given so quickly through the Russian Embassy—through not at once to Scotland Yard—that they believe the abductors had no time to leave London with their prisoner.

News of the Day.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals, sitting at Montgomery, Ala., yesterday denied a rehearing to Greene and Gaynor.

Charles R. Henderson, head of the banking house of Henderson & Co., of New York, is dead of injuries he received when he fell from a window in the second story of his home.

The Board of Directors of the Pittsburg, Pa., Stock Exchange decided to remain closed today. No official statement was given out other than the board deemed it best not to open yet.

Four firemen were injured last night in a collision between Truck No. 2, of the Washington fire department, and a south-bound Fourteenth street car, at Rhode Island avenue and Fourteenth street northwest.

Announcement was made in Pittsburg, Pa., yesterday evening that to prevent the personal holdings of George Westinghouse from being sacrificed, he is to have three years extension to allow him to realize on his assets.

The government expects to conclude its case against the Standard Oil Company before spring. Experts are now engaged in analyzing the testimony thus far taken in New York, to ascertain just where they stand.

It is reported in Vienna, from Salzburg, Austria, that Archduke Ferdinand IV, grandduke of Tuscany, is dying. He received the last sacrament yesterday. He is seventy-two years old, and for a long time has suffered from a nervous malady.

After an illness of a few months, William W. Birth, said to be the oldest native Washingtonian, died yesterday afternoon. Mr. Birth lacked but one year of being one hundred years old, he having been born in Washington January 11, 1808.

Blinded by the intense darkness and heavy fall of rain, Charles H. Fuller, twenty-eight years of age, of Washington, yardmaster at the Pennsylvania freight yards at Benning, D. C., stepped in front of a south-bound passenger express about 7 o'clock last night and was killed.

Omaha packing houses yesterday reduced the prices of all kinds of meat 10 per cent, and expect a still further reduction. Edward A. Cudahy, of the Cudahy Packing Company, expressed the belief that the prices of all commodities would be materially reduced, and that the present financial flurry would result in a general reduction in values.

After a plea that a prison sentence would be equivalent to a death sentence, Dr. Walter R. Gillette, ex-vice president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, who was convicted of perjury for swearing falsely before the grand jury in the insurance investigation, was sentenced in New York yesterday by Justice Dowling to six months in the penitentiary.

Raymond Hitchcock, the comedian, who is playing in "The Yankee Tourist" at the Astor Theater, New York was arrested yesterday on the charge of having assaulted a fifteen year-old girl. It was announced by the district attorney's office that other charges of a similar nature, involving four or five other girls, would be presented to the grand jury today.

Several railroads and express companies charged before the Interstate Commerce Commission with conspiracy to ruin the $60,000,000 business of the larger creameries of the middle west have filed their answers. They deny the allegation of conspiracy and claim that as butter and cream are a manufactured product they are entitled to a higher rate than of the shipments of milk. They allege that at the former rates they were carrying milk at a loss.

Senator McCumber called at the White House yesterday to talk with the President about a bill which he intends to introduce as soon as Congress meets which will provide that all corporations engaging in interstate commerce may, if they desire, get a charter from the Secretary of Commerce and Labor. If such a charter is granted the corporations will be under constant federal supervision and may not issue stock in excess of their actual assets.

As a result of class rivalry, 20 sophomores of the School of Mines, at Rolla, Mo., were routed out of bed Sunday night, and, half clad, were tied to trees on the campus, where they remained until daylight yesterday, shivering in the nipping atmosphere. After they had been released by other sophomores, the entire sophomore class captured seventy-five freshmen, bound them with ropes and chains, and marched them around town, accompanied by the school band.

Astronomers at the United States Naval Observatory have been making observations for the last two weeks on a new comet which has been named the Mellish comet, from the fact that its discoverer was J. E. Mellish, a farmer, of Cottage Grove, near Madison, Wis. It has already been ascertained that the new comet is approaching the earth. The comet is of the eighth magnitude, and is not visible to the naked eye, but can be seen plainly with a small power lens.

Chief Justice Clabaugh yesterday in Washington signed a rule, returnable Friday, November 8, for Samuel Gompers, president; Frank Morrison, secretary, and fifteen others, who make up the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, to appear on that date and show cause why they should not be temporarily restrained from maintaining a boycott against the Buck Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis, and including this firm's name in the list published in the official publications of the federation, under the caption, "We Do Not Patronize."

At a meeting of Forbes Bivouac, United Confederate Veterans, at Clarksville, Tenn. Saturday, a resolution was adopted that it was the sense of the bivouac that the public school commissioners should never select a teacher, either white or colored, who had been educated in the north.

The American Magazine for November, which has been received from its publishers in New York, opens with an article by Ida Tarbell, "He Knew Lincoln," which gives a new picture of the Lincoln-Douglas debates. The first instalment of a fact novel by Lincoln Steffens tells of the clash of class s in San Francisco, "New Readers of News," "The Power of Men" and "The Long Giant and His Shortcomings," are articles of more than passing interest. Davis Grayson contributes another "Adventure in Contentment," and "In the Interpreter's House" deals with religion inside the church and out. The fiction of this issue is excellent, including the latest "Letitia" story by George Madden Martin.

Virginia News.

Thanksgiving Day has been selected as Congressional Day at the Jamestown Exposition.

Charles Allen, a white man who was on trial in the Corporation Court at Roanoke yesterday charged with malicious cutting, walked out of the courtroom when court took a recess and escaped.

Giles B. Jackson and the management in charge of the negro exhibit at the Jamestown Exposition will make an effort to have that exhibit permanently located in Richmond.

Announcement has been made by the war department of the retirement of Major Lewis H. Strother, Twenty-eighth infantry. He graduated from the Virginia Military Institute in 1877 and was well known throughout the State.

Major James Hamilton Capers, 73 years old, a prominent Mason, Knight Templar, Confederate veteran, successful business man and chairman of the Richmond city school board, died suddenly yesterday in his home in that city.

Seeking to prevent the collapse of the Bone Island Oyster Company, of which he is president, W. D. Cardwell yesterday applied to Judge Ingram, of the law and equity court in Richmond for a receivership for the company's affairs.

Ill and confined to bed at her home in Newport News, Mrs. Nannie Baker, twenty-four years of age, is being guarded by the police, and as soon as she is able to walk will be removed to the city jail and held for trial on the charge of murdering her infant child. The crime is alleged to have been committed yesterday morning about 5 o'clock, within a few minutes after the child was born.

Captain Nat H. Burrow, one of the best known residents of Prince George county, died Saturday night at his residence, at Burrowville. Captain Burrow was a distinguished Confederate soldier and took a leading part in the famous raid made by General Wade Hampton's cavalry in the rear of General Grant's army, resulting in the capture of more than 2,000 head of cattle from the federal commissaries.

The theft of a small russet satchel, containing stock certificates and bonds to the value of $14,000 from a Pullman coach of a train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, between Baltimore and Wilmington, was reported to the Washington police last night. The papers were the property of William J. Payne, of Richmond, president of the Newport News Gas Company and of the Newport News and Old Point Railroad.

The Thanksgiving holidays will be the occasion of another big meeting of the teachers of the State when they gather for their annual convention in Roanoke November 29th and 30th. The various educational associations and conferences will all assemble to discuss questions relating to the trials and tribulations of teachers and to interchange ideas in regard to their work. Instead of less interest being taken in these meetings, the attendance has steadily grown and the value of them recognized more and more.

Gov. Swanson has issued orders for an election in the Ninth Virginia Congressional district on December 17. D. F. Bailey, of Bristol, who is an independent republican candidate for the seat in Congress recently made vacant by the death of Campbell Slemp, made his opening speech at Abingdon, yesterday, to a very large audience. After declaring that, if elected, he would affiliate with the republicans, he proceeded to arraign the Slemp-Summers regime in the severest terms. He gave many reasons for refusing to submit his claims to a republican convention.

Judge L. L. Lewis, United States district attorney, filed in the United States Court in Norfolk yesterday information and exhibits in the case of the recent seizure by the government of the 8,750,000 cigarettes in transit from the American Tobacco Company to the British-American Tobacco Company of Great Britain. Immediately after the filing of the papers, Clerk Bowden introduced process in the usual way to all persons interested to appear in court on November 14 and show cause why a forfeiture of the cigarettes to the government should not be decreed.

A dispatch from Bristol, Tenn., says that President George L. Carter, of the South and Western road has issued an order suspending practically all construction work on that road. The South and Western is being built by Thomas F. Ryan, of New York; Norman B. Ream, of Chicago, and others at a cost of $50,000,000, and is 75 per cent completed. The purpose of the road is to open up coal lands in southwest Virginia, owned by subsidiary corporations, including the Clinch Field Corporation, with a capital stock of $80,000,000, of which Mr. Carter also is president. The reduction of the forces will throw an army of men out of employment, as there were in the neighborhood of 10,000 persons employed.

ROBBERIES AT PINE BEACH.

It developed yesterday that the veterans who were at Norfolk for the meeting of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Virginia were robbed of no less than $3,000 by highwaymen, snatch thieves, and nimble-fingered artists, at Pine Beach, immediately outside the exposition grounds. The lawlessness, which was checked while James M. Barr was director general of the exposition, has broken out afresh, and the thugs evidently are determined to reap a harvest before the exposition closes.

Yesterday, in broad daylight, two known robberies were committed there, one of the victims being Attorney Alexander Wedderburn, jr., of Washington, Wedderburn was in the act of purchasing some souvenirs. He pulled out a roll of bills and quick as a flash the money was snatched from his hand and the thief disappeared. He complained to the police, and finally succeeded in regaining $15 of his money. The extent of his loss is not known.

The Market.

Georgetown, Oct. 29.—Wheat 73a75.

Stomach troubles, Heart and Kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everythere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its Restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the Stomach, etc. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

DIED.

At the residence of his cousin, Mrs. John Donnelly, 908 Prince street, at 6:45 a. m. October 29, 1907, JOSEPH H. LOVEJOY, of Boston, Mass., in the 64th year of his age. Funeral Thursday, October 31st, 1907, at 9:30 a. m., from St. Mary's Church, Alexandria. [Washington, Boston and Lowell papers please copy.]

Today's Telegraphic News.

Editor Harden Acquitted.

Berlin, Oct. 29.—Editor Maximilian Harden, of the Seukunet, was acquitted in the civil court today on the charge of libelling General Count Von Moltke. The count was ordered to pay the costs of the case.

Count Von Moltke started violently when Justice Kern announced the verdict. Then he settled back in his chair like a man stricken by a mortal wound. He sobbed aloud. The justice took twenty minutes to finish reading his judgment. In that time the count seemed to age as many years.

A new horror awaited him as his friends helped him, tottering and trembling to the court room door. The street was packed, and as he appeared a hurricane of hisses, hoots, vile epithets and vituperative cries fairly swept him from his feet. "Oh, I am ruined! I am damned! would I were dead!" cried the count. His friends tried to force a way for him through the crowd. A shower of stones and filth from the street beat them back.

"Down with the noble wifebeater! Death to the moral leper!" screamed the people, rushing at the group. Von Moltke's friends drew their swords, but the count himself cowered back toward the entrance to the courts without an effort to defend himself. His face was ashen, but his manner that of a man walking in a dream.

The police, though put on their guard by the vast gathering in the street as the hour approached for the announcement of Justice Kern's judgment, were unprepared for so violent an outbreak. They quickly came to the rescue, however. Beating back the throng with the flat of their swords, they finally opened a narrow lane to the count's carriage. Even then the mob cursed and spat at the wretched nobleman as he was fairly dragged to the carriage and lifted into his seat. A detachment of mounted men formed about him, and, thus guarded, he was driven home at top speed.

Harden, in the meantime, was having hard work to escape suffocation through the avalanche of congratulations heaped upon him.

A throng of spectators dashed toward him the moment the verdict was announced and the court room was in an uproar in an instant. The attendants restored order with much difficulty and the moment the reading of the judgment was finished a clamoring group of friends fairly threw themselves upon the editor, lifted him in their arms and carried him from the court room in triumph.

Outside, the crowd greeted him with an enthusiasm equalling the fury with which Von Moltke had been received. His progress to his home was a continual ovation and a cheering crowd still surrounds his house.

The Von Moltke-Harden libel case grew out of a series of articles published by the editor in which charges of shocking immoralities and political intrigues were charged against the "Knights of the Round Table," an ostensibly social organization including a group which had practically constituted the Kaiser's unofficial cabinet for nineteen years.

Record-breaking Farm.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 29.—What is believed to be the largest check ever paid to any one wheat grower in the northwest has just been received by a Pendleton farmer for the season's crop, raised on about three thousand acres of Umatilla wheat land. The check, which was for $70,842.70, was drawn by the Pacific Elevator Company. All eastern Oregon has had a banner crop year, producing six million bushels, or 1 per cent of the total wheat crop of the United States. Actual crop failure was never known in that section, and many who began work there a few years ago with an ox cart are now in riding automobiles. Part of the wheat acreage is leased from the Indians of the Umatilla Reservation, who derive an income of about $200,000 a year from this source.

Killed Valuable Dog

Philadelphia, Oct. 29.—While frolicking through the grass about "The Orchard," at Cedar Park, on Saturday, Merlin's Charlemagne, a $10,000 prize-winning English bulldog, son of the famous world's champion, Rodney Merlin, was shot by a trespasser on the property. He died a few hours later in spite of the strenuous efforts of a surgeon. The dog's owner, Miss Innes Elizabeth Schaefer, caught the man as he was clambering through the fence about the grounds, and, although he pounded her with his fists, held him until a trolley car passed, when his collar and coat gave way under the grasp. He was captured by the men who rushed to her aid from the car and was taken to the station house.

Italian Murdered.

New York, Oct. 29.—With a bomb and a loaded 38-calibre revolver concealed under the sweater next to the wearer's body, the corpse of an unknow man, bearing nine dagger wounds in the breast and shoulders, was found on the sidewalk early today in Noll street, between Central and Evergreen avenues, Brooklyn. The dead man seems to have been about 27 years old and is believed to have been an Italian. The police theory is that he was a member of the Black Hand, who violated some of the organization's rules and paid the penalty with his life.

The body was later identified as that of Vito Gremoldi, a Sicilian.

Speaker Cannon a Candidate.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Speaker Cannon has become a full-fledged candidate for President to succeed Theodore Roosevelt. He will be backed by the solid Illinois delegate. Cannon's candidacy was formally launched for a conference last evening. At the close of the secret conference Speaker Cannon in a brief address to his friends said he was not candidate in the sense he was personally seeking the nomination, "but" he added, "if our party should deem it wise that I be the standbearer, I don't suppose it would behoove me to refuse the honor".

Tossed Out Man in Bed.

Montclair, N. J., Oct. 29.—Anthony Denise, of No. 49 Pine street, went to sleep with his pipe in his mouth Sunday night, and a few minutes later the bed was afire. Members of the family, who rushed into the room, thought the burning mattress was unoccupied, and tossed it through the window. Denise fortunately landed right side up on the mattress when it fell twenty-five feet, and was only shaken up. The fire department extinguished the fire before any serious damage was done.

Losses in Farm Products.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Losses in farm products attributed to decline in prices due to financial flurries is as follows:

Corn, decline of three cents a bushel on a crop of 2,550,000,000 bushels, $75,000,000.

Cotton, a decline of approximately two dollars per bale on 10,000,000 bales, $20,000,000.

Oats, a decline of three cents on a visible supply of 70,000,000, $2,100,000.

Wheat, a decline of four cents a bushel, on a visible crop of 50,000,000 bushels, $2,000,000.

This loss of upwards of $100,000,000 is based on the visible supply of grain and cotton alone, but the loss on live stock cannot even be estimated. This also would reach into the millions.

The Chicago Board of Trade has felt the effects of the Wall street scare more or less for a week, but the climax was reached yesterday when wheat dropped four cents in almost as many minutes.

In the southwest there was a drop of 5 cents a bushel, while in the northwest the decline is said to have been even greater, reaching between 9 and 12 cents in the last two weeks.

Narrow Escape of King and Queen.

Cherbourg, Oct. 29.—The King and Queen of Spain narrowly escaped death in an accident to their train on their way to England early today. Though their majesties were unharmed, widespread comment has been created by the series of mishaps which seem to occur wherever they go.

The royal party took the train at Paris at midnight for Cherbourg, where they were to board the British battleship Renown, assigned to carry them to England to visit King Edward.

Just as they were entering Cherbourg the train ran off the rails. To the fact that it had slowed down for the station is probably due to the fact that no serious damage was done. The accident has not yet been explained.

Excitement at a Bank.

Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 29.—Police reserves were summoned to the Provident Institute for Savings (The Bee Hive Bank) at 239 Washington street at 10:30 this morning to keep in order a large crowd of excited depositors, mostly foreigners, employed at the Havemeyer Refinery. The officers of the institution say that they have plenty of cash and will be able to withstand the run being made by the Polacks and Slavs. There was a crowd at the paying teller's window all day yesterday and today the line extends into the street, men and bareheaded woman standing in the rain and nervously clutching their bank books.

Returned to Work.

Yonkers, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Striking trolley employes went back to work today in accordance with an agreement reached last night. The directors of the company will consider the demand for an increase to twenty-five cents per hour and a committee of citizens will call upon the directors in behalf of them. The settlement followed a conference arranged by Rev. Dr. J. E. Freeman.

Mrs. Hartje's Answer.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 29.—Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje's answer to the petition of her husband, Augustus Hartje, for reopening the famous divorce case filed at Philadelphia with the Supreme Court last week was made public today by her leading counsel. The document is a denial of every charge made by Hartje.

NO MORE DANDRUFF.

Newbro's Herpicide Destroys the Pestiferous Cause of Annoying Dandruff.

Does your head itch? Is your coat or dress full of white flakes after dressing your hair? That's the effect of dandruff. Is your hair thinning? Are you beginning to get bald in spots? Are you already, in fact, rapidly becoming bald? If so, that is the effect of a measly liitle parasite that burrows in at the root of the hair, and throws up the scalp in dandruff and eats off the hair at the root. Science's latest discovery is a destroyer of that pestiferous germ. That destroyer is contained in no other hair preparation on earth but Newbro's Herpicide. Try it, and be convinced. A delightful dressing. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes—50 and $1.00. E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Special Agents. 70

Negro Lynched.

Belen, Miss., Oct. 29.—The body of Chas. German, a negro, riddled with bullets, was found hanging to a tree five miles from here today. German was accused of assault and met the usual fate.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years without a Failure.

Mr. W. O. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much fear the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequaled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Out of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," in an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles, too, and and chilblain disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by druggists. 25c.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:24 a. m. and sets at 5:03 p. m. High water at 1:57 a. m. and 2:33 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair and cooler tonight, with minimum temperature about 35 degrees. Wednesday fair and warmer; diminishing northwesterly winds.

ECHOLLS-FICKLIN WEDDING.

The home of Colonel and Mrs. Theodore Ficklin, on Duke street, was the scene last evening of a pretty wedding when their youngest daughter, Miss Mildred Thornton Ficklin, became the bride of Mr. Thomas Jefferson Echolls, of Georgia. The bride was gowned in white silk and wore the veil worn by her grandmother at her marriage in 1821, and carried the fan used by her great-grandmother over a hundred years ago. The ceremony was performed by the bride's uncle, Rev. Richard L. Carne, assisted by Rev. Lawrence Kelly, of St. Mary's Church.

The marriage of Colonel Ficklin's daughter, who took her name from that of her paternal grandfather's niece, which was Mildred Thornton, the daughter of his sister who died in Georgia, was attended by her immediate relatives only, and opened up to them more knowledge of her ancestors than they ever heard before. Her uncle, Rev. Richard L. Carne, son of Richard L. Carne, whom our older readers will remember as a hardware merchant, married her to Thomas Jefferson Echolls, one of a family born also in Georgia, and was assisted by Rev. Lawrence F. Kelly, of St. Mary's Church. The relatives of Miss Ficklin among them her cousin, Mr. Richard L. Carne, jr., son of William F. Carne, filled the room. She is well-known by Alexandrians as a child of four years, who from simply hearing could immediately repeat any tune she heard and would not, for a long time, learn to sing by note. When she went to school at St. Mary's Academy, however, she took lessons in music so successfully that she passed the examination without errors and obtained the degree of perfection in music—the only one who ever succeeded in doing so there. She then gave lessons and often sung at parties when requested. A curious circumstance was that Col. Ficklin's daughter in-law attending with her son and four daughters, the youngest three weeks old, seemed to keep her eyes upon the performance of the marriage ceremony. At the lunch given, Father Carne produced a gold slide which he had kept for seventy years and wore when a boy, and held it up for inspection, showing it as the breastpin given by that good old citizen, John Shakes, when he was married in Georgetown to Cecilia Latruite, daughter of an Acadian exile in Baltimore, and coming to Alexandria to settle in 1802, so that it was at least 105 years old. On it was inscribed in French "One Heart, One Thought," an admirable motto for those who want a happy life.

EMMERT-ENTWISLE NUPTIALS.

A quiet home wedding will take place at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Charles F. Entwisle, 718 Orinoco street, when her daughter, Miss Florence May, will become the bride of Mr. Clarence Emmert, of this city. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace Protestant Episcopal Church. The bride will be given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Charles W. Entwisle. She will be attired in a simple gown of white organdie and her flowers will consist of Bride's roses. Her only attendant will be her cousin, Miss Ida Virginia Grigg, who will wear a gown of white organdie and will carry a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The groom will have for his best man his brother, Mr. Marcus Emmert, of Washington. Following the ceremony the couple will leave for an extended southern bridal trip, and upon their return they will reside in this city.

WIND AND RAIN.

The wind blew "great guns" last night. There were also occasional showers of rain and but few people appeared on the streets. The wind came in heavy flaws, at times occasioning alarm, although, so far as can be ascertained, but little damage resulted. In some instances bricks were blown from chimneys, some fencing prostrated and limbs twisted from trees.

The steamer Norfolk arrived up about an hour and a half late, owing to head wind and low tides.

The steamers Wakefield and Trenton, which were to leave this morning for the lower river, were aground and unable to leave their docks in Washington.

The water was blown entirely out of some of the Alexandria docks, exposing the mud as far as the channel bank.

HALLOWEEN NIGHT.

To the deep regret of the hundreds, even thousands, of small boys about the city who have always looked forward to Halloween night as the night of all nights of the year, when one lays aside his dignity and joins in the merry-making, orders have been issued to the Washington police to stop all mischievousness on that night. The police of this city will be requested to take similar measures before some serious trouble results. There has heretofore been no little damage to property on Halloween night, so much so that housekeepers have been tempted to use shotguns in order to avenge themselves on their tormentors.

CHURCH NOTES.

Beginning on next Friday the Bethany M. P. Church will hold a series of evangelistic meetings for ten days in the old First Presbyterian Church. The pastor, Rev. Wm. M. Poisal, will be assisted by Rev. Webster M. Strayer, of Baltimore. Mr. Strayer was for three years president of the Maryland Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, and is a forceful and eloquent talker.

Rev. James H. Taylor, of Washington, will preach in the Second Presbyterian Church on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights of this week.

The Circuit Court for Alexandria county will resume its session tomorrow morning, when the case of John C. Nelson will be called. Nelson was recently cited to appear to show cause why he should not be fined and imprisoned for an alleged attempt to bribe a witness summoned to testify in a case before the court.

MISS CORBETT WINS SUIT.

A jury in Circuit Court No. 1, of Washington, Justice Wright presiding, has awarded Miss Cornelia L. Corbett the sum of $462 50 from Attorney Frederick A. Fenning. Miss Corbett sued for $4,346.75, which she claimed was the value of certain household goods, pictures, &c., belonging to her, which Mr. Fenning had sold with her mother's effects. Mr. Fenning was appointed by the court about two years ago as committee of the estate of Mrs. Caroline F. Corbett, when the latter, with her daughter, Cornelia L. Corbett, was committed to the Government Hospital for the Insane.

NEARING COMPLETION.

The work of improving north Washington street between Queen and Wythe streets is rapidly nearing completion. The work of laying the macadam roadway from Queen to Pendleton streets a distance of three blocks, has already been completed and that portion of the street is now open for traffic. As previously stated, the roadway is of macadam with vitrified brick for several feet on either side and six-inch granite curbing. When completed, this work will greatly improve that street.

POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

A called meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners will be held at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night for the purpose of electing a successor to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Policeman Jones, which becomes effective November 1. Up to the present time the commissioners are in receipt of only one written application. It is thought, however, that a number of other prospective candidates will submit their applications at tomorrow night's meeting.

BOOM FOR COAL DEALERS.

The cold snap last night, which was virtually the first of the season, resulted in many of the wood and coal dealers being deluged with orders this morning. A well know dealer stated today that the demand made this morning for both wood and coal was so heavy that it was impossible to fill all of the orders received today. There is no danger, however, that the present supply on hand by dealers will give out in the near future.

THE ELKS.

District Deputy of Virginia I. Walke Thurston was present and delivered an address at a meeting of Alexandria Lodge of Elks, No. 758, of this city, which was held last night. A number of candidates were initiated at the meeting. Arrangements are being made by the Dramatic Club of the Elks for the presentation of "The Merry Cobbler," a four act comedy drama, which will be presented at the Opera House November 12 and 13 next.

WILL PRINT CHARTER.

Copies of the charter for the proposed incorporation of Del Ray and St. Elmo will, it is stated, be placed in the hands of a printer within the next week and they will be distributed to the residents of these two suburbs. In the event the charter meets with their approbation the matter will be at once taken up with the state legislature and application will be made for the incorporation of the above named places under the name of "Potomac."

POLICE COURT.

[Justice L. H. Thompson presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Isaac Tarrell, colored, charged with assaulting Andrew White, colored, with a stone, was fined $5.

Joseph Preisco, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

William Bailey, colored, charged with interfering with a fireman in the discharge of his duty, was fined $2.50.

DEATH OF JOS. LOVEJOY.

Mr. Joseph Lovejoy, a resident of Boston, who had been visiting his cousin, Mrs. J. T. Donnelly, in this city, died yesterday evening, at the residence of the latter. The deceased was a soldier in the federal army during the civil war, and made frequent visits to this city, where he had a number of acquaintances. The deceased was born in Lowell, Mass. He was 63 years old. The remains will be buried here.

WILL ORGANISE.

Announcement is made that a meeting of Sons of Veterans will be held at Lee Camp Hall Monday night next at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of forming a permanent organization. The matter of forming an organization has been under consideration for some time past, and those fostering the movement believe that the present time is very auspicious for the work.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Elfie Lee McCuen, whose death occurred at the Georgetown University Hospital Sunday, took place this afternoon from Grace Church. Rev. Messrs. H. T. Sharp and Edgar Carpenter conducted the services and the pallbearers were Messrs. Robert N. Mason, Charles H. Gallihan, William A. Moore, George Hulfish, Richard Gibson and Horace B. Ramey.

BASKETBALL.

The Alexandria Athletic Association team will play the 2nd Regiment Team, of Washington tonight at 8:30 o'clock at their hall, 1004 King street. The 2nd Regiment team won the championship of the District of Columbia, last year, and a good game may be expected by all who attend. Ladies are cordially invited to attend.

THE MIDGETS CASE

It is said that the case of George Midgets, colored, charged with the murder of Charles T. Smith, in this city on October 20, 1906, will not come up for two or three weeks in the Court of Appeals on a motion for the new trial. Argument in the case was expected to begin November 5, but a change in the date has been announced.

OPERA HOUSE.

The Metropolitan Moving Picture Company continues to attract large audiences at the Opera House nightly, and the scenes shown are both interesting and instructive. Tonight a new reel, "Hearts' Bidding," will be presented.

Trial Catarrh treatments are being mailed out free, on request, by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. These tests are proving to the people—without a penny's cost—the great value of this scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

PERSONAL.

Senator Daniel and Mr. C. O. Carlin will speak at Warrenton, on Friday night; Remington, on Saturday at 1 p. m. and The Plains, at night.

Miss Nettie Dreifus, of Alexandria, who has been the guest of Mrs. Jacob L. Shaner, jr., for several weeks, has returned home.—[Lynchburg Advance.

The marriage of Miss Ruth Bryant, daughter of Capt. Herbert Bryant, to Lieut. Wilson Brown, jr., U. S. N., will occur at the home of the father of the bride-elect, 306 north Washington street, at noon tomorrow. Rev. P. P. Phillips, of St. Paul's Church, will perform the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter U. Varney have returned after a week's visit to the Jamestown Exposition.

Afflicted With Sore Eyes for 33 Years.

I have been afflicted with sore eyes for thirty-three years. Thirteen years ago I became totally blind and was blind for six years. My eyes were badly inflamed. One of my neighbors insisted upon my trying Chamberlain's Salve and gave me half a box of it. To my surprise it healed my eyes and my sight came back to me.—P. C. Earles, Cynthiana, Ky. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Carrie Brent, colored, died at the Alexandria Hospital yesterday evening.

In the Corporation Court today Mr. Gilbert J. Cox qualified as administrator of the estate of the late Charles D. Semmes.

The train on the W. & O. Railroad which formerly left Bluemont at 5:45 p. m. for this city, now leaves there at 4:50 p. m.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to William H. Robinson, of this city, and Katharine M. Fischer, of Baltimore.

Thieves last night broke a show case in front of Mr. A. L. Jameson's studio, on King street, and carried away a number of pictures and postal cards.

The Alexandria Dancing Club did not give their dance last night, as contemplated, on account of the inclement weather. The club will give a country dance tomorrow night.

The season for partridges, turkeys, pheasants and woodcock does not open until November 1st, and the smallest fine for violation of the law is $50. The law is uniform and applies to every county in Virginia.

A telephone message was sent to the station house last night to the effect that there was a fight in progress on a wharf between King and Prince streets. Officers repaired to the place, but they found everthing serene.

In the Corporation Court today, Judge Barley presiding, Ida B. Cayce, was granted an absolute divorce from her husband, William E. Cayce, on the grounds of desertion. The plaintiff was also granted permission to use her maiden name, Ida B. Goodman.

The alarm of fire early last night was caused by the burning of a chimney of a house on Queen street, between Fayette and Payne. An extinguisher from the Reliance engine house was brought into requisition and what might have proven a serious conflagation was averted.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 28.—The feature of the trading in the stock market in the first hour was the closing out of many long accounts in which stocks like New York Central, Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Reading, Pennsylvania and St. Paul were largely held. The room had a story that a large part of this selling was the closing out of loans that were carried over last night with the understanding that they would be liquidated early today. There were many reports current of banks further curtailing accomodations by reducing part of their loans daily. Pennsylvania declined over 4 points and was closely followed on the downward movement by both Union Pacific and New York Central.

The 1908 Directory of Alexandria.

In connection with the modern job and book printing office which I expect to open in Alexandria within the next two weeks it is my intention to publish the 1908 edition of the City Directory here. The new book will be complete and modern in every way and will surpass any previous directory that has ever been published in Alexandria both in size, make-up and accuracy, with the further advantage that it will be a home production, printed and compiled in this city, and that all the receipts will be spent here. Already many of the prominent business firms have subscribed for the new book. The price will be Three Dollars and Fifty Cents, which has been heretofore charged, and this amount will include the printing of your name in heavy type. Advertisements will be inserted at reasonable rates.

The book will be published on the first of January. The canvassers to secure names will start work on the fifteenth of November.

Please cut out the attached order, sign and send to me.

ASSASSINATION IN RUSSIA.

General Maximoffsky, Russian director of the department of prisons of the ministry of the interior, was shot and killed in St. Petersburg yesterday.

A young woman presented herself at the weekly reception of General Maximoffsky and remained quietly in the crowded anteroom until it was her turn to enter the general's private office. When she was in his presence the woman drew a revolver and fired seven shots point blank into the general's body.

The wounded man was hastily taken to a hospital, but his condition was hopeless.

The general's assassin, who was arrested immediately, unhesitatingly avowed herself to be an emissary of the Northern Flying Section of the social revolutionists, who had been entrusted with the task of punishing Maximoffsky for the stern regime which he lately had introduced in the treatment of important political psisoners, whom he ordered to be treated like ordinary criminals.

An attempt was made Sunday to assassinate Mrkhmud Bekoff, vice governor of the political prison of Viborg. Several shots were fired at Bekoff, but they struck a portfolio containing a steel plate, which he used as a shield.

When the slayer of General Maximoffsky, who was identified as Mlle. Ragozinnikova, of Perm province, the daughter of a teacher in the Imperial Conservatory of Music, was taken to the police station, her agitated attempts to free her bound hands and reach toward her breast led to an investigation, and it was found that she carried inside her corsage a case containing 18 pounds of a high explosive, a charge powerful enough to blow the entire building and its occupants to pieces.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotton rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by all druggists. 50c.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drought are almost forgotten in prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold remedy and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

A weak Stomach, causing dispepsia, a weak Heart with palpitation of intermittent pulse, always means weak Stomach nerves or weak Heart nerves Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis., will mail samples free. Write for them. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this simple trial. Sold by E S. Leadbeater & Sons.
